What's Included

Everything you need to write, submit, and improve — every week for ten weeks.

Ten full-length question papers

Section A & B, every test

Two questions per test — one Philosophical, one Thematic — mirroring the actual Mains Essay paper structure.

QnA booklets

PDF

One booklet released alongside every test, built to help you plan your answer before you write it.

Copy evaluation

every submission

Every copy is evaluated and reviewed before it's sent back to you, with a score and feedback you can act on.

Model answers

for every question

A model answer for each of the twenty questions across all ten tests, so you always have a benchmark to compare against.

Test Schedule

All dates 2026. Every test carries two questions — Section A is always Philosophical, Section B rotates through the themes below.

No.	Date	Section A	Section B
01	27 Sep	Philosophical	Governance & institutional accountability — federalism, decentralization, judiciary
02	04 Oct	Philosophical	Corruption, transparency & ethics in public life
03	11 Oct	Philosophical	Climate change & environment vs. development
04	18 Oct	Philosophical	Agriculture, food security & sustainable development
05	25 Oct	Philosophical	AI, emerging tech & the digital economy
06	01 Nov	Philosophical	Automation, jobs & cybersecurity
07	08 Nov	Philosophical	Gender issues & women's empowerment
08	15 Nov	Philosophical	Social justice, inclusion & mental health
09	22 Nov	Philosophical	Education & skill development
10	29 Nov	Philosophical	Employment, human capital & poverty alleviation

How It Works

1Write

Attempt the paper on the day it's released — one Philosophical, one Thematic question per test.

2Submit

Scan and submit your copy.

3Get evaluated

Receive your evaluated copy back with a score, feedback, and the model answer.
